3 SECURITY

The website is protected by a domain certificate that uses the SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) cryptographic protocol, which enables secure communication on the Internet.

4 PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

Personal data obtained through the website will remain fully stored, protected and processed by the company. Personal data is adequately protected against loss, destruction, falsification, unauthorized access or discovery by third parties.

The website operator will handle all data obtained in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act.

5 COPYRIGHT

The company is the owner of all material and moral copyrights over copyrighted content in the broadest sense (content, texts, photographs, sketches, graphic elements, maps and plans, audio-video recordings, music, computer programs and other content) published on the website. Content owners may also be company partners or contractual collaborators, or such content is marked with an appropriate indication of the source and author. In addition to its own sources, it is possible to use purchased material on multimedia websites (e.g.: www.depositphotos.com, www.shutterstock.com, www.pixabay.com …).

The content published by the company is permitted to be viewed. In accordance with the legislation governing copyright and other related rights and intellectual property, copyrighted works are protected upon creation and do not need to be specifically marked.

Without the express prior written permission of the company, any copying, transcription, modification, reproduction, public display and playback, commercial distribution and other forms of use of the copyrighted work as well as the use of data or content are prohibited.

In the event of any permitted use of the content published by the company, all copyright and industrial property rights notices and other notices and warnings must be retained. The owner of the signs and trademarks appearing on the websites is the company or a third party. Any use of these marks is expressly prohibited without the appropriate prior written consent of the rights holder. All signs, including signs that are not registered as trademarks, are protected under copyright law.

6 COOKIES

The Company is the owner and provider of the website, in relation to which it processes certain information and personal data of website visitors as a personal data controller. The Company does this, among other things, using “cookies” technology, small text files that are stored on the website visitor’s computer. We use cookies in the Company only to read information on your hard drive that has been stored there by a cookie in connection with our website or the website of our advertising partners, with a detailed list of our cookies or the cookies of our advertising partners and their operation being provided below.

6.1 What are cookies

It is a technology that modern websites use to collect and store certain settings and technical information about the visitor, which can be used to identify certain characteristics of an individual visitor. This information, among other things, reveals when and how visitors use the website and allows the company to continuously improve its website. The use of cookies is a common and common practice of many modern websites.

Consenting to and using cookies can also offer you, as a visitor, certain advantages, such as saving your settings, filling out various forms with pre-prepared entries, better adapting the website to your device or your needs, etc.

6.2 Your consent to the use of cookies

When you visit our website, a pop-up window will warn you that the website uses cookies and offer you a button to allow the use of (optional) cookies.

If you do not want us to install cookies on your device, do not click on the cookie consent button while visiting our website. However, if you want to remove cookies that may have already been installed on your previous visit, follow the procedure described below.

Removing or blocking cookies may result in the non-optimal functioning of this website.

6.3 What cookies are we using?

In addition to the mandatory and standard session cookie "PHPSESSID", we also use the cookies "_ga" and "_ga_36CSMMESHX" from Google Analytics, which are used to distinguish users and maintain the session in that order, both with a lifespan of 2 years.

6.4 How to manage cookies?

In addition to the pop-up window when visiting our website, you can also control and remove the loading of cookies in your web browser.

If you want to delete cookies from your device, we advise you to follow the described procedures, which will most likely limit the functionality of not only our website, but also most other websites, as the use of cookies is a constant on the vast majority of modern websites.

7 FINAL PROVISIONS

The general and other terms and conditions (hereinafter referred to as the terms) of business are determined by the company that provides the services on the website on its own behalf. They are prepared on the basis of the applicable legislation and may be updated by the company from time to time in accordance with changes in services and activities and based on user feedback. The company reserves the right to change the general terms and conditions of use at any time without prior notice.

The terms of business are based on:

- Personal Data Protection Act (ZVOP);
- Electronic Commerce Act (ZEPT);
- Consumer Protection Act (ZVPot);
- Recommendations of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Slovenia (GZS).

The General Terms and Conditions are regularly updated and are available to everyone on the website in their most recent and valid version in full at all times.

The company recommends that users regularly review these general and other terms and conditions to be always informed about the terms of use and how the company protects their privacy.

The terms and conditions apply from the date of acceptance until cancelled or until any changes are made.

The user is deemed to have been informed of any changes or amendments to these general terms and conditions on the date of publication of the new or amended or supplemented general terms and conditions on the website and in the application itself.

These general terms and conditions are valid from 1. 1. 2026.
